Photo policy:

As part of the event we are required to take some photos to submit as part of the Guinness World Record Attempt paperwork. These will be group photos, not individual swimmers. We will obviously take in to account modesty and child protection issues. There will be two official Rotary photographers on the day who will be wearing their official Rotary fluorescent tabards with insignia. Members of the public are not allowed to take photos inside the pool. There may also be some press photographers. There will not be a representative from Guinness present so we are required to "prove" we have done what we said we were going to do. Event photos and press coverage are part of this.
