What happens next?

Your form will be processed, and you will be contacted if any information is missing.

When an election is held the ballot paper for the elector you have been nominated as a proxy for will be sent to you in the post.

Deadlines for receiving this form apply before an election so check Elections - notices and nominations - North West Leicestershire District Council \(nwleics.gov.uk\) for information and deadlines for upcoming elections in North West Leicestershire.

If you apply close to an election deadline your ballot papers may not be sent out until a few working days before polling day.
