Draft Diseworth Village Design Statement - public consultation

Public consultation on the draft Diseworth Village Design Statement starts on Monday 17th August.

Long Whatton & Diseworth Parish Council has recently reviewed and updated its village design statement to reflect the adopted North West Leicestershire Local Plan and the National Planning Policy Framework. The draft village design statement includes analysis of the character of the village and provides guidance on the form and design of new development. It applies to the village of Diseworth and the surrounding countryside.

You can view the draft village design statement on North West Leicestershire District Council's website by using the following link; https://www.nwleics.gov.uk/pages/supplementary_planning_guidance

If you have any comments on the draft village design statement please email them to planning.policy@nwleicestershire.gov.uk or send them by post to Planning Policy, North West Leicestershire District Council, Council Offices, Whitwick Road

Coalville LE67 3FJ. The deadline for comments is 5pm on Monday 28th September 2020.

Regards
