Our response:

We are not able to provide exact numbers in relation to your request, however we have endeavoured to provide a narrative response.

- 1) The only circumstances where we have discharged our prevention duty out of area has been into supported accommodation, the majority of which would be in Charnwood Borough, all private rented and social housing has been within district.
- 2) Whilst we aim to place households in district wherever possible we do currently have an arrangement with a supported housing provider in Leicester City to provide 2 bed spaces. In terms of Bed and Breakfast we do have to place out of area due to availability. The most common destination is Harborough District followed by Leicester City although we have also used Charnwood and Derby City within the period.

- 3) As per Question 1.
- 4) As per Question 2.
- 5) All within district.
- 6) We are not aware of any.
