FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST 1215

I write further to your email dated 29 June 2020.

Your request has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), explained on our freedom of information page.

Your request:

I wish to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000 for the following: Any complaints/interventions made to or acted upon by you regarding Mr George Finney/Finney Park Homes and the site covered by the planning application Ref:19/01961/FULM within the period of the submission of the planning application to the present date.

Our response:

There have been 3 cases created:

- 1 of these was advice relating to ongoing issues and where to direct the complaints
- 1 related to the felling of trees for which there was no breach of planning legislation and was forwarded to the Forestry Commission
- 1 related to unauthorised development which had 4 complainants, this case was closed as no breach expedient to take action on.

The cases all seemed to relate to felling trees, use of land for motorcross and ASB of which none of it felling into our jurisdiction as it did not breach planning legislation.

The supply of information in response to a freedom of information request does not confer the right to re-use the information. UK copyright law allows information supplied for the purposes of private study and non-commercial research to be used without permission. Information supplied can also be re-used for the purposes of news reporting except for in the case of photographs.

GOING FORWARD

If you are dissatisfied with the information supplied please feel free to contact me on the number above for any queries in relation to this response. Please note that in responding to further enquiries I can only comment on the information contained within this correspondence and cannot provide any further information that may pertain to an additional FOIA request.

Please remember to quote the Authority's four digit reference number given at the top of this email in any future communications.

If you remain dissatisfied following the conclusion of the above informal review, you have the right to ask for an internal review. A request for a review whether formal or informal should be submitted within two calendar months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be sent to DPO@NWLeicestershire.gov.uk or the address above.

Further details on our appeals and complaints procedure can be found on our website here.

If you remain dissatisfied following the conclusion of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at accessicoinformation@ico.org.uk.

Yours sincerely
