FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST 1341

I write further to your email dated 19 October 2020.

Your request has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), explained on our freedom of information page.

Your request:

Please can you provide me with the number of 'change of use applications' your council has received since the beginning of 2020 from owners wanting their property to be changed from Class A or Class B (now known as Class E under the 2020 amended order) to Class C under the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order of 1987?

Please can you provide this information broken down into Class A and Class B changes of use (before September) and by month of application date.

Our response:

There have been three applications that meet your criteria. For more information please see our public access page (https://www.nwleics.gov.uk/pages/view_planning_applications) using these references:

20/00335/FUL

20/00434/FUL

20/00617/FUL

The supply of information in response to a freedom of information request does not confer the right to re-use the information. UK copyright law allows information supplied for the purposes of private study and non-commercial research to be used without permission. Information supplied can also be re-used for the purposes of news reporting except for in the case of photographs.

GOING FORWARD

If you are dissatisfied with the information supplied please feel free to contact me on the number above for any queries in relation to this response. Please note that in responding to further enquiries I can only comment on the information contained within this correspondence and cannot provide any further information that may pertain to an additional FOIA request.

Please remember to quote the Authority's four digit reference number given at the top of this email in any future communications.

If you remain dissatisfied following the conclusion of the above informal review, you have the right to ask for an internal review. A request for a review whether formal or informal should be submitted within two calendar months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be sent to DPO@NWLeicestershire.gov.uk or the address above.

Further details on our appeals and complaints procedure can be found on our website here.

If you remain dissatisfied following the conclusion of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at accessicoinformation@ico.org.uk.

Yours sincerely
