FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST 1556

I write further to your email dated 26 March 2021.

Your request has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), explained on our freedom of information page.

Your request:

I would like to request a full copy of the licence agreement for Ashby Town Hall between Dunkin Rushton Ltd and NWLDC dated the 28-11-12 .

Could you explain the reason for this subsequent licence as the original was signed in 1992?

Could you enclose all documents relating to the issue of this licence document and confirm whether this licence was discussed at a Council meeting . If so include a copy of the minutes .

Our response:

The licence see attached document 1556a.pdf, was in relation to the Christmas event in Ashby in 2012.

It would not have been subject of a Council Meeting – it was granted under the provisions of the 1992 licence which was entered into at the same time as the lease, in relation to the operation of rival markets. Please see document 1556b.pdf, the email chain relating to its issue.

The supply of information in response to a freedom of information request does not confer the right to re-use the information. UK copyright law allows information supplied for the purposes of private study and non-commercial research to be used without permission. Information supplied can also be re-used for the purposes of news reporting except for in the case of photographs.

GOING FORWARD

If you are dissatisfied with the information supplied please feel free to contact me on the number above for any queries in relation to this response. Please note that in responding to further enquiries I can only comment on the information contained within this correspondence and cannot provide any further information that may pertain to an additional FOIA request.

If you remain dissatisfied following the conclusion of the above informal review, you have the right to ask for an internal review. A request for a review whether formal or informal should be submitted within two calendar months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be sent to DPO@NWLeicestershire.gov.uk or the address above.

Please remember to quote the Authority's four digit reference number given at the top of this email in any future communications.

Further details on our appeals and complaints procedure can be found on our website here.

If you remain dissatisfied following the conclusion of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at accessicoinformation@ico.org.uk.

Yours sincerely
